

Horizon Honors Middle School News

February 2010

FROM PRINCIPAL NANCY EMMONS

Our first semester honor roll is printed in this edition and as always, our winter athletic teams are doing a wonderful job representing us. We are all so proud of what a great group of Middle School students we have at Horizon Honors. I was impressed with how they handled all the emergency drills and weather situations we had on campus in January. We know we can rely on our kids to work through difficult situations with impressive maturity.

Thank you to all our families who participated in our January ILP Conferences. It is so wonderful to work in cooperation with parents to help all our students achieve their goals.

Many of you took the Parent Satisfaction Survey either online in December or at your ILP Conferences in January. We want to thank each of you who participated. Here are the final results of that survey:

The quality of my child's education at Horizon Community Learning Center is:

Poor - 6

Fair - 28

Good - 212

Excellent - 665

TOTAL - 911

Thank you for making Horizon Honors an amazing place to be!

CONGRATULATIONS MUSIC MAN PRODUCTION TEAM!

Over three days, 112 students crowded into the Performing Arts Hallway to audition for "The Music Man." Fabulously inspiring auditions led to tough decisions, but after great deliberation the production team was posted with 47 students being offered acting parts. In addition to the cast, the production will benefit from the student leadership of Teresa Messmer, Student/Tech Director; Kacie Moss, Dance Captain; Joshua Garrett, Vocal Captain; Katie Sacco, Stage Manager and the tech crew. Congratulations need to be extended to all the High School students and 5th - 8th grade students Philip B., Claire C., Cassie C., Mackenzie C., Josh C., Abbey F., Alexa G., Zane G., Emma L., Kian M., Michael M., Joy P., and Bennett W.

Mark your calendars! "The Music Man" will be performed April 22-24 at 3:30 and 7 p.m. in the Multi-Purpose Room.

On February 4, the Cantabile Honors Chorale and the Magnum Chordum students will be taking a field trip to see a performance of The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee.
